The Pope Orders High Mass in All the Catholic Churches in England in Honor of the Jubilee.

MURDER AND PILLAGE.
LONDON, June 1.—A telegram from Genoa says Canon Vallega has been murdered at the Capuchin church at Alarico and the church pillaged by the assassins. The police arrested three persons on suspicion of having committed the crime.

IRELAND IS OMITTED.
ROME, June 1.—A papal rescript has been issued ordering high mass and Te Deum to be sung in all Catholic churches in England in honor of the Queen's jubilee.

England.

PARNELLISM AND CRIME.
LONDON, June 1.—The Times publishes the third and last of its articles on "Parnellism and Crime," detailing the history of the Irish-American conspiracy. It says the Clan-na-Gael is the soul of the National League. While the latter exists on fine speeches, etc., the former manages the real business. Our narrative shows Parnell, Sexton and other leaders of the Home Rule party on intimate confidential terms with the Clan-na-Gael miscreants and that their permission or prohibition of diabolical roguery was a matter of prearrangement.

A SCHOLAR DEAD.
LONDON, June 1.—The death is announced of Thomas Spencer Baynes, the well known professor of logic, and one of the editors of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

CEDED TO ENGLAND.
LONDON, June 1.—The Sultan of Turkey has ceded the Island of Cyprus to England.

THE LONDON TIMES AGAIN.
LONDON, June 1.—The last of the Times' second series of articles on Parnellism and crime, which appears this morning, concludes with the statement that the New York Council Fenian Brotherhood issued a circular appealing for funds for a "pyrotechnic display" in honor of the Queen's jubilee, and requesting that all moneys subscribed for the purpose should be addressed to John Murphy, Treasurer, postoffice box 2282. The article continues: "In other words a series of dynamite and incendiary outrages is intended. Whether the schemes succeed the near future will disclose. What knowledge the Parnellites possess of the character and projects of the men, who hold such close relations with them, we shall not here discuss. We will only say that while the success of the inquiry we have made has surpassed our original expectations Parnell has but to raise a finger to obtain far fuller information upon every point than our partial and limited opportunities have rendered possible."

ACCIDENT IN THE WILD WEST SHOW.
LONDON, June 1.—While a quadrille was being performed in the Wild West Show to-day Buck Taylor was thrown from his horse. The animal bolted, and Taylor fell to the ground and sustained a compound fracture of the thigh.

MASS MEETING OF UNIONISTS.
LONDON, June 1.—A mass meeting of Unionists was held to-day in Birmingham town hall. The following letter was read from John Bright: The great English Liberal party was called to abandon its past traditions and prostrate itself before an odious, illegal, immoral conspiracy, and though they grieved over the temporary ruin of the Liberal party they were guiltless of mischief and without shame. Sir Henry James said the Liberal Unionists never lost in their allegiance to their leader until his alliance with Parnell was inevitable. They were then obliged to associate with their former political opponents. As to the Parnellites, he distrusted them. A resolution was adopted approving the action of the Unionist leaders.

MISSING SINCE THE FIRE.
PARIS, June 1.—One hundred and twelve persons have been reported missing since the fire. The prefecture refuses to give to the public a list of those reported.

IT IS RUMORED THAT Wilson, President Grey's son-in-law, has sustained heavy losses on the bourse. He got caught in speculation on the idea that the Sannoeb incident would lead to war.

FOR PARTY, NOT FOR FRANCE.
PARIS, June 1.—There has been no repetition to-day of the disturbance made last night in front of the opera house in favor of General Boulanger, and excitement has generally subsided. The Radical press to-day again denounces the Rouvier cabinet, while the Conservative papers rejoice at the rupture between the Radicals and Opportunists, as they hope that the split will result in profit for the Conservatives.

THE DEBRIS CLEARED AWAY.
PARIS, June 1.—M. Souvelacque, the Automist, has been elected President of the Municipal Council.
The clearing away of the debris from the site of the Opera Comique was concluded to-day. No more bodies were found. Le Temps says the official number is seventy, of which fifty have been identified. Two wagon loads of charred limbs have been taken to the morgue.

THE CASE OF THE STATE VS. JOHN BENNETT, charged with cattle stealing, is on trial. A human skull was found on Mr. Clem Pierce's place the other day.

KNIGHTS IN CONVENTION.
CINCINNATI, OHIO, June 1.—The convention of District Assembly 135, Knights of Labor, composed of miners exclusively, began its session to-day. Deliberations were all in secret.

JUDGE LYNCH'S METHOD.

Two Boys Criminally Assault a Farmer's Daughter—One Is Lynched.

BOSTON, Ind., June 1.—At 10 o'clock Sunday morning Walter and Charles Davis, brothers, visited the Flannagan residence in Perry county, and told the two Flannagan boys that some stray stock was breaking into the farm a mile away from the house. When the boys had gone to look after the supposed stray stock the Davis boys carried a fourteen-year-old sister of the Flannagan's to a neighboring wood. A handkerchief was placed over her mouth and the girl was tied to a tree while her person was violated. After this assault she was left for dead. When her two brothers returned home search was made for the missing sister. A night hunt failed to discover her, but on Monday morning the neighbors found the girl almost dead tied to a tree in the woods. The Davis boys, who made the assault, were found in the woods near the suffering girl on Monday morning. One account states both of them were taken to a sapling near by and lynched after they had confessed the deed. Another states that Walter Davis escaped, but that just after dark his brother Charles was found concealed under the house and was dragged out by an infuriated mob. He was severely strapped to a horse and driven back to the spot where he had ravished the girl. He begged for mercy, but his cries were unheeded. He was taken from the horse, his hands tied behind him and he was given two minutes in which to pray. He availed himself of the time allowed and at the expiration of it a stout sapling was bent down, a short rope was tied to the top with the other end about Davis' neck. Six men held down the tree and when it was released it flew back into position and Davis was jerked twenty feet into the air. The force threw him over the top of the tree and as the rope brought him up short on the other side his neck was broken. His body was riddled with bullets by the crowd, and he was allowed to hang there until yesterday morning, when he was cut down by his father and given a burial.

FURTHER SUSPICIONS AROUSED.

RENO, Ind., June 1.—The remains of Samuel Spray and Willie Kellen, the two boys who were so brutally murdered by their grandfather, William Showers, who is now in Lebanon jail, were buried to-day in the village cemetery. Thousands of persons attended the burial, and public excitement is unabated. There is no doubt in the minds of the neighbors that Showers' motive in killing the boys was his desire to marry Miss Sargent, who had promised to marry him if the boys were placed in a home or board out. Showers' wife died suddenly a year ago, and her daughter, the mother of the boys, several months later, and there is now a suspicion that this same desire of Showers to marry Miss Sargent led him to take the lives of his wife and daughter. In searching the house to-day oranges were found which are said to contain poison, and a thorough investigation will be made in the endeavor to ascertain whether or not Showers is responsible for the death of the women.

Weatherford.

Special to the Gazette.
WEATHERFORD, TEX., June 1.—The grand jury, which was reconvened to consider the case of the wire-cutters, has found a true bill against Steve Akens and Joe Gules. John Gules was not indicted. The court fixed the bonds at $750 each. Akens has given the bond, but Gules is still in jail. They were arrested Saturday night, May 21, after a considerable fight with the officers wherein Sheriff Sisk received one pistol shot through his coat, a full account of which appeared in THE GAZETTE May 23.
In the District court to-day the jury in the case of the State against Eli McConnell, rendered a verdict of guilty and assessed his punishment at four years in the penitentiary. An application for a new hearing will be made, and if overruled an appeal will be made.

Millers and Coopers.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., June 1.—The differences between the millers and coopers has been practically settled. A conference was held last evening and a satisfactory agreement reached. The agreement takes effect July 1, and will bind all mills and all shops not now under contract. The result is regarded as a practical solution of the coopers trouble, and was hailed with satisfaction by all members of the craft in this city.

BLAINE.

The Maine Statesman is Not Certain Yet Whether He Was Not Elected President by the People.

He Says Plainly that Burchill Defeated Him With His Bore of R. R. R., Although He Never Took It.

Senator John Sherman Starts His Presidential Boom to Rolling Under Cloudy and Wet Auspices.

Blaine on Burchill.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The World this morning prints an elaborate account of a visit made by a correspondent to Mr. Blaine at his home in Augusta, Me., and afterwards at his cottage at Bar Harbor, in the course of which Blaine gave fully his plans for his forthcoming trip. He discussed the false reports of his failing health and referred at length to the work he has bestowed upon the books just finished. He says his visit abroad will extend longer than a year. Mr. Blaine said: "I am going abroad and expect to be away a year. Mrs. Blaine and my two daughters, Margarette and Hattie will make up the party. I have engaged state-rooms on the German Lloyd ship Ems which sails June 8. We shall stop at Southampton and go at once to London. We intend to spend considerable time in travelling through Great Britain. After England we will probably go to Scotland and Ireland, then I think we shall spend some time in Germany, and afterwards take in France. By this time it will be getting so late in the year that Spain and Italy will be uncomfortable. We intend to tour both of these countries. We will probably make long visits in Rome and Greece, perhaps stay a brief time in Constantinople and visit the scenes of the recent earthquakes in south France and adjoining portions. It is sufficient time to cover a great deal of ground without hurrying."

The correspondent asked: "How about the report, Mr. Blaine, that you contemplate in some way aiding Mr. Gladstone and the home rule party?"

"That story is pure imagination. I never had such an idea in my mind." Mr. Blaine positively declined to talk about politics except that while in conversation with the correspondent at Bar Harbor he said in regard to the Burchard incident in the campaign of 1884, "I did not hear what he said, but the report is he said it, and next day every paper in the country had it of course, but as a matter of fact I did not hear it myself. Way out in Indiana they had it that I had said, 'Oh, yes,' and it went all over the state that way. Throughout the week they had slins of paper printed which read, 'Read what Mr. Blaine says,' on them, which were distributed in front of the churches on Sunday. That is what lost me the election. You know of course how close it was. Well in New York city it lost me several thousand votes, a good deal more than enough to have carried the state. I never have felt sure that I was not elected. It was a matter of less than 600 votes to have turned New York the other way. When it is as close as that there can be no certainty of the count. I do not think it can ever be said with certainty which one of us really got the votes."

The report, which occupies about five columns of the World, embraces many political points concerning Mr. Blaine.

Sherman Opens His Campaign.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 1.—The bad weather of to-day seriously interfered with General Sherman's reception. At about 12 o'clock rain set in which continued at intervals making it necessary to abandon the outside demonstration. Elaborate preparations had been made. During a full of the storm about 1000 persons occupied their seats, but were driven to the Representative hall by the rain at 2 o'clock. In a short time 2000 people crowded into the galleries, capable ordinarily of holding only 800, and the more favored to the number of 1500 were admitted to the floor of the house. As Senator Sherman accompanied by Governor Oglesby, Senators Cullem and Farwell, the state officers and the members of the managing committee, entered the hall at 2:40 there was loud and continued applause. Senator Sherman was introduced by Governor Oglesby and delivered a long speech in which he defined the two great political parties of the country from his standpoint and in which he made his own position pretty plain.

[The Senator's speech is printed on the sixth page of this issue of THE GAZETTE.—Ed.]

SHERMAN GIVEN A RECEPTION.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 1.—The demonstration to Senator Sherman closed this evening with a reception in honor of the Ohio statesman. The hotel lobby and parlors were thronged from 7:30 to 8, and several hundred visitors to the city and citizens who were deprived of hearing the distinguished Senator speak in the afternoon were honored by meeting him personally. The Senator leaves at midnight for Chicago, where he will be tendered a reception to-morrow.

Galveston Majority Contest.

Special to the Gazette.

GALVESTON, TEX., June 1.—As the municipal contest draws nigh the majority candidates are becoming less. This morning Judge J. M. Burroughs published his withdrawal from the mayoralty race, and it is related that to-night the General John M. Claiborne will announce his withdrawal in the morning. The General has been making a vigorous canvass, but realizing the failure of his efforts has decided to withdraw. This will leave the following candidates: Fulton, Hawley, McAlpine and Malloy. Colonel McAlpine, although the last in the race, is making a vigorous campaign, and is rapidly gaining strength. The adherents of each of the other candidates are confident that their choice will be elected. All indications, however, point to the
